Section C - Descriptions and Specifications

A - SOW

As directed, the contractor shall provide the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army, Research and Technology (DAS(R&T)) with data collection, research, analysis and recommendations regarding management of Army Science and Technology programs. Support is required to assist in research and analysis of programmatic and budgetary issues, to integrate requirements across various programs and functional areas, and to assemble documentation. The complexity of the support effort required necessitates the use of highly skilled and experienced personnel.

1.0 Subtask 1- Issues Analysis and Support:
- 1.1 The contractor shall provide technical and management assistance regarding Congressional interest issues to the DAS(R&T).
- 1.2 The contractor shall conduct research, prepare technical analysis and hearing summaries, perform legislative tracking monitoring, and draft assessments of legislation having impact on Army Science and Technology programs.
- 1.3 The contractor shall analyze congressional inquiries, conduct necessary research, and prepare draft responses.
- 1.4 The contractor shall research and draft correspondence necessary to forward legislative correspondence to Congress.
- 1.5 The contractor will provide this support full-time at the government's location.

2.0 Subtask 2 – Program Management.
- 2.1 Program Management. The contractor will manage this effort to ensure efficient, effective accomplishment of all tasks.
- 2.2 The contractor will provide the support necessary to facilitate Army meetings and conferences. Preparation may require the contractor to analyze, integrate, and present requirements, plans, programs, and strategies in support of conferences.
- 2.3 The contractor will provide general support to ASA(ALT), as required. The contractor will also provide the support identified above on site at ASA(ALT) facilities, or other directed locations. The nature of this task may require the contractor to provide quick-response support to meet the needs of the Government. This may include attendance at meetings.
