A SOW

“FOCUSED LOGISTICS DIVISION BUDGET/PROGRAM ANALYSIS” STATEMENT OF WORK-T/ORP # (I assign the T/ORP #)

DESCRIPTION:

1.0 The contractor shall support the Focused Logistics Division with analysis of issues relevant to all Focused Logistics systems and programs. In order to determine the relevance and applicability of Focused Logistics planning, programming, budgeting and execution, the contractor will support Focused Logistics with research into—and analysis of—current and future U.S. strategic objectives, the objectives of the Army leadership, military doctrine, relevant technologies, and congressional intent. The contractor will then assist Focused Logistics in aligning its programmatic efforts with these paradigms. The contractor will also brief Systems Integrators and Staff Synchronization Officers on evolving strategic, doctrinal and technological concepts as necessary. The contractor will act as a Focused Logistics liaison to various Army and Department of Defense organizations and will attend meetings, briefings and other events as appropriate. The contractor will prepare briefings, point papers, executive summaries and other products and will organize and submit Focused Logistics input to other organizations as necessary. Specific functions may include:

- a. Provide support to the Chief, Focused Logistics Division for FDIIS submissions for the CSS BOS. Assist the Chief in developing the CSS BOS position on the budget, Program Objective Memoranda (POM) and similar documents for Focused Logistics systems and programs. Analyze Focused Logistics planning, programming and budget actions to ensure they meet the needs of the Soldier and the Army Transformation Campaign Plan.
- b. Attend various meetings and support Integrated Process Teams, as required, to ensure Focused Logistics representation and input. May require incumbent to be subject matter expert for the division during attendance at meetings such as the Force Development Video Teleconference (FD VTC), Unit Set Fielding/Stryker Brigade Combat Team Integrated Product Teams (IPTs) and Total Army Analysis IPTs
- c. Coordinate and staff Focused Logistics system and program requirements through other Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA) and Program Management (PM) offices, as well as other organizations as necessary for approval and support. Identify and recommend solutions to issues involving Focused Logistics system and program requirements.
- d. Collect information and formulate and coordinate responses to requests for information on Focused Logistics issues and programs.
- e. Support development of the Army Modernization Plan as it applies to Focused Logistics program inputs.
- f. Assist HQDA Staff Synchronization Officers to coordinate, integrate, and synchronize all aspects of materiel systems from requirements determination through fielding into the Army force structure to retirement.
- g. Act as a subject matter liaison with other organizations and communities, such as the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology, the Army G-3, the Army G-4, Army Materiel Command, Training and Doctrine Command and the Science & Technology community.
- h. Provide briefing and graphical support to Focused Logistics as directed; support will consist of research, data collection and briefing development and production.
- i. Review and develop input for various publications and quick reaction tasks as necessary; publications may include Army/Department of Defense/Joint regulations, modernization and master plans, and various studies.
