

National Days of Remembrance

“Learning from the Holocaust: Choosing to Act.”

12-19 April 2015

Sunday, April 12 through Sunday, April 19, 2015 are designated as Days of Remembrance in memory of the Holocaust victims and in honor of the survivors, rescuers and liberators. The powerful stories of these individuals serve as a solemn reminder for us to promptly confront actions motivated by ideologies inflamed by hate and racism. It is our duty to remember these crimes committed against humanity so that such crimes are never repeated.

The Days of Remembrance are also opportunities to acknowledge the courage of those who rose up against tyranny by rejecting the persecution of their neighbors and fellow citizens. Our Army Values demand that we continue to lift up these men, women and nations as the vanguard of freedom, dignity and respect for all.

Out of the chaos of war emerged the will of individuals, whose collective actions across continents joined to eliminate tyranny. This year marks the 70th anniversary of the end of World War II in Europe and the liberation of the Nazi concentration camps by Allied forces. The Army’s 3rd, 4th, 6th, 10th and 11th Armored Divisions and the 42nd, 45th, 80th, 90th, and 103rd Infantry Divisions proudly upheld our Army Values as part of this international effort to end the injustice of the Holocaust.

When our Nation takes strong and decisive action to join forces with our allies and do what is right, we can create positive outcomes in the face of the most challenging circumstances. Army Strong!

Daniel A. Dailey
Sergeant Major of the Army

Raymond T. Odierno
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

John M. McHugh
Secretary of the Army