TECHNICAL COGNIZANCE AND TECHNICAL DIRECTION:

a. The U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command is the cognizant Government technical organization for this contract and will provide technical direction as defined herein. Technical direction shall be exercised by the following:

Name	Office symbol	Phone Number

b. Technical direction, as defined in this clause is the process by which the progress of the contractor's technical efforts are reviewed and evaluated and guidance for the continuation of the effort is provided by the Government. It also includes technical discussions and, to the extent required and specified elsewhere in this contract, defining interfaces between contractors; approving test plans; approving preliminary and critical design reviews; participating in meetings; providing technical and management information; and responding to request for research and development planning data on all matters pertaining to this contract. The contractor agrees to accept technical direction only in the form and procedure set forth herein below.

c. Except for routine discussions having no impact on contractor performance, any and all technical direction described in paragraph b. above shall only be authorized and binding on the contractor when issued in writing and signed by a Government official designated in a. above. The Technical Direction shall not effect or result in a change within the meaning of the "CHANGES" clause, or any other change in the Scope of Work, price, schedule, or the level of effort required by the contract. Such changes must be executed by the Contracting Officer as a Modification-Change Order, or as a Modification-Supplemental Agreement, as appropriate. It is emphasized that such changes are outside the authority of the Government officials designated in a. above who are not authorized to issue any directions which authorize the contractor to exceed or perform less than the contract requirements. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any Technical Directive, the estimated cost of this contract, and, if this contract is incrementally funded, the amount of funds allotted, shall not be increased or deemed to be increased by issuance thereof.
